Contractor Connection Employees Donate Nearly 400 School Supplies

Donations Benefit Children of Military Families and Wounded Warriors

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (September 1, 2015) –

During the month of August, Contractor Connection employees donated nearly 400 school supplies, including 12 backpacks, as part of Operation Homefront's Back-to-School Brigade, a nationwide school supply collection campaign.

The supplies will benefit children of military families and wounded warriors.

We're happy we could support such a great cause, and we're thankful to everyone who joined us in donating!
